

UCSF May Submit 1 Application for each Award Type

PLEASE FORWARD THIS ANNOUNCEMENT TO ALL APPROPRIATE FACULTY AND RESEARCH ADMINISTRATORS

WHAT: 2017 Hyundai Hope on Wheels Quantum Award and Quantum Collaboration Award

PURPOSE:

- Research proposals focused on only the following types of pediatric cancer will be considered:
 - 1) pediatric CNS tumors,
 - 2) metastatic pediatric solid tumors,
 - 3) pediatric myeloid leukemia's and
 - 4) pediatric osteosarcomas
- Research projects to be funded will be those that pursue innovative research that is translational in nature, and that has the potential to impact childhood cancer diagnosis and treatment
- Projects that involve immunotherapy or precision oncology/genomics are encouraged for consideration
- Clinical research trials, endowments, or facility infrastructure projects are not eligible.

ELIGIBILITY:

- The PI/Lead Investigator must have an established record in pediatric cancer research and must be an MD or MD/PhD. PhD co-applicants are eligible, so long as an MD or MD/PhD is a co-PI.
- The PI/Lead Investigator must commit at least 20% of his/her efforts to the project.
- The proposal must have demonstrable or potential translational relevance and impact.
- Multiple co-PIs from the same institution are permitted to apply for the Quantum Award.
- Multiple institutions and one identified Lead PI are required for the Quantum Collaboration.

BUDGET AND PROJECT PERIOD:

- Quantum Award:
 - Award Budget: $250,000 per year, total costs
 - UCSF indirect cost policy will apply except for non-federal entities.
 - Project Period: limited to 4 years
