PLEASE FORWARD THIS ANNOUNCEMENT TO ALL APPROPRIATE FACULTY AND RESEARCH ADMINISTRATORS

WHAT: Dana Foundation Planning Grants for Future Dana Centers for Neuroscience & Society (https://dana.org/funding-and-grants/)

PURPOSE:
• To create a vision for a Center for Neuroscience & Society, organize and gather expertise, outline potential programs, and pilot-test a potential model for training and/or education.
• Recipients of Planning Grants will have the opportunity to submit a proposal to be considered as a candidate to host a Dana Center. The Center will be deeply committed to rigorous interdisciplinary training in neuroscience, engage in research with an eye towards addressing practical issues raised by advancing neuroscience, and grow a new generation of interdisciplinary experts who are empowered to embed neuroscience and its implications in a societal context.

ELIGIBILITY:
• Principal investigators should be individuals who are permanently employed by their institution and have experience leading multidisciplinary teams. Adjuncts, part-time faculty, and trainees, including graduate students, postdoctoral researchers, fellows, or other time-limited employees, are not eligible to be principal investigators, but are encouraged to be listed as part of the proposal.

• Award Budget:
  o Planning Grants: $150,000
  o Dana Center for Neuroscience & Society: $1,000,000 per year

  o UCSF indirect cost policy will apply except for non-federal entities.
• Project Period:
  o Planning Grants: 5 months
  o Dana Center for Neuroscience & Society: 5 years
