

UCSF May Submit 1 Application

Internal Deadline: 11:59 PM, Monday, December 12, 2022

PLEASE FORWARD THIS ANNOUNCEMENT TO ALL APPROPRIATE FACULTY AND RESEARCH ADMINISTRATORS

WHAT: NIH NICHD Pediatric Critical Care and Trauma Scientist Development Program (K12)
(<https://grants.nih.gov/grants/guide/rfa-files/RFA-HD-24-001.html>)

REQUEST FOR APPLICATIONS NUMBER: RFA-HD-24-001

PURPOSE:

- To support a national program of mentored career development and training in research for junior faculty in pediatric critical care medicine and pediatric trauma surgery and to fuel the pipeline of well-trained investigators and advance research in the clinically demanding fields of pediatric critical care and trauma surgery.

ELIGIBILITY:

- The PD/PI must be a physician and senior faculty member who is knowledgeable about pediatric critical care and/or pediatric trauma research, has a record of success in laboratory and/or clinical investigation, and has demonstrated skill in mentoring and career development.
- Scholars supported by the program must:
 - Be citizens, noncitizen nationals, or permanent legal residents of the United States.
 - Have an MD or DO and be fully qualified in postgraduate training for pediatric critical illness or trauma practice. PCCTSDP candidates should be physicians who have completed clinical training and must hold junior faculty positions at institutions with academic and research-intensive programs in pediatric critical care and trauma.
 - NOT have previously served as PD/PI of an NIH research grant (e.g., R01, R03, R21, P01), mentored career development award (e.g., K08, K23, K25, K99), subproject of program project (P01), contract (N01), or other equivalent research award.

BUDGET AND PROJECT PERIOD:

- Award Budget: Application budgets are limited to $785,000 in direct costs and must reflect the actual needs of the proposed project.
 - UCSF indirect cost policy will apply except for non-federal entities.
- Project Period: up to 5 years

NUMBER OF APPLICATIONS UCSF MAY SUBMIT: 1

APPLICATION TYPES ALLOWED: New, Renewal

CURRENTLY FUNDED INSTITUTION: University of Utah

DUE DATES:

- Internal: 11:59 PM, Monday, December 12, 2022. If multiple groups submit an LOI, an additional pre-application will be due Wednesday, January 04, 2023.

- Pls submit directly to the LSP; RMS does not get involved unless and until you are nominated.
- Sponsor: Wednesday, March 29, 2023.

Submit the attached Letter of Intent (LOI) by 11:59 PM, December 12, to:
limitedsubmissions@ucsf.edu

To qualify for UCSF Limited Submission Program opportunities, applicants must have a paid UCSF appointment either at the time of application or anticipated by the time of award.

The LSP is a selection process, not an award process. As the LSP is under significant time constraints, all reviewer feedback is optional. We encourage you to seek other avenues for proposal feedback.
