

UCSF May Submit 2 Applications per Department

Internal Deadline: 11:59 PM, Tuesday, September 26, 2023

PLEASE FORWARD THIS ANNOUNCEMENT TO ALL APPROPRIATE FACULTY AND RESEARCH ADMINISTRATORS

WHAT: Klingenstein Third Generation Fellowship Program (<https://klingenstein.org/klingenstein-third-generation-foundation/fellowship-program/applying/>)

PURPOSE:

- To investigate the causes, prevention, and treatment of child and adolescent ADHD and depression.
- The Foundation wants this research to produce direct and tangible benefits to children and their families, while supporting promising young scientists in building their careers.

ELIGIBILITY:

- Candidates must be at the junior faculty level or on a trajectory for attaining faculty status, in a department of psychology, psychiatry, pediatrics, or developmental pediatrics. Those in T32 or other designated research training programs will also be considered.
- Candidates must have a primary mentor for the proposed project.
- Candidates must hold a PhD and/or MD and have completed all clinical training in psychology, psychiatry, pediatrics, or developmental pediatrics.
- Investigators who have K awards or have applied for K awards are eligible for nomination, provided the award (if has been funded) does not overlap with the proposed project. Investigators who have not applied for K awards and hope to use a KTGF fellowship as a steppingstone to a K award or other funding are encouraged to apply. Investigators who have already received R01 awards from NIMH are not eligible to apply.
- Fellows may be selected prior to receipt of IRB approval, but no fellowship award is finalized until such approval is received.

BUDGET AND PROJECT PERIOD:

- Award Budget: up to $30,000 total costs per year
 - UCSF indirect cost allowed up to 10%. Additionally indirect costs are weighted in the decision to grant the award (see website).
- Project Period: 2 years

NUMBER OF APPLICATIONS UCSF MAY SUBMIT:

- 1 per department for ADHD
- 1 per department for Depression

DUE DATES:

- Internal: 11:59 PM, Tuesday, September 26, 2023. If multiple applicants from the same department submit an LOI, an additional pre-application will be due Tuesday, October 17, 2023.
- Pls submit directly to the LSP; RMS does not get involved unless and until you are nominated.
- Sponsor: Wednesday, January 10, 2024.

Submit the attached Letter of Intent (LOI) by 11:59 PM, September 26th, to:
limitedsubmissions@ucsf.edu

To qualify for UCSF Limited Submission Program opportunities, applicants must have a paid UCSF appointment either at the time of application or anticipated by the time of award.

The LSP is a selection process, not an award process. As the LSP is under significant time constraints, all reviewer feedback is optional. We encourage you to seek other avenues for proposal feedback.

For information on all current LSOs, please visit: <http://rdo.ucsf.edu/limited-submission-program-lsp>

Sent by Connie D'Aura on behalf of the Limited Submission Program (LSP) within the Research Development Office (RDO).